

Quality Policy

VFT offers surveying services in the construction, mining and infrastructure sector. VFT is dedicated to delivering a consistent, efficient and safe surveying service whilst complying with the relevant codes and practices to our current and future clients.

VFT is committed to: -

- Provide sufficient and suitable resources to implement and maintain quality management system
- Drive continual improvement and innovation based upon effective business process, best practices, and customer surveys
- Provide sufficient and suitable resources to implement and maintain processes and systems in compliance with ISO 9001:2015 requirements.
- Encourage staff to pursue their knowledge in modern technology to meet our clients' needs and expectations
- Educating and training to continually improve the skills of our employee's knowledge and awareness of our quality systems and procedures.
- Continually review policies and systems to achieve our aims

Monitor work practices and procedures to ensure our clients service is continually improved.